Gearing Up for the Book Sale

The Annual St. Francis Book Sale is quickly approaching, and the need for volunteers is upon us. There are jobs to suit all skills, talents and limitations. But mostly there are jobs for folks who want to have a good time and support our community in the process! So contact Susan Tysinger at sgtysinger@triad.rr.com or 288-5590 for more information. Thanks!

ANNOUNCEMENTS: APRIL 12-APRIL 19

Home Gatherings

We have begun a series of home gatherings, which are being hosted by various members of our parish family and led by Bob Plybon. It is our hope that as many of us can participate as possible. We would like everyone to have the opportunity to help us build a new sense of community in a new day. As we gather in these homes we are not asking for financial commitments. We are talking about what we can do for each other, what can/should the church be doing to support its members, and how we can join together in unique ways to serve Jesus. So, when you are called, please plan on being present at these worthwhile meetings of fun and fellowship. And if you're interested in attending and/or hosting, please contact Andrea Knupp at 282-1434 or rekrock@aol.com. Thank you.

Save the Date!

St. Francis will have a Vacation Bible School during the week of August 3rd-7th. More details to follow. If you would like to volunteer, please contact Andrea Pollina at 643-5629, or at apollina@triad.rr.com. Thanks!

The Day School is now enrolling children that will be 18-months to five years old for the 2009/2010 school year. Please visit us on the web at www.stfrancisgreensboro.org or call at 288-4740 for more information. Thanks!

Don't forget, the Church Office will be closed Mon. and Tues., April 13th and 14th. Thanks!

We are delighted to announce that a carillon has been donated to St. Francis in memory of Charles Scott, Jr. by his family and friends. So each time you hear the bells, cherish the gift and the memory of one who is dearly missed.
